Now Logan tries to defeat the note by claiming he was crazy when he executed it.

The man with a weight on his leg can't hope to win in the race. A man with a weight on his health can't expect to compete in life and business with those who are not handicapped. If his brain is heavy, and his blood sluggish, because of constipation, he will not succeed in doing anything very well. Constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of all sickness. Symptoms of it are: salivary glanditis, poor appetite, bad taste in the mouth, dizziness, blueness, and lassitude. Constipation cures nearly by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are not at all violent in their action, and yet they are more certain than any medicine which is so strong that they put the system all out of order. The great advantage of the "Pleasant Pellets" is that they cure permanently. Send 10-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and get his great book, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, absolutely FREE. The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one drugged disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHERRY & CO., Toledo, O.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Joseph Perkins Is Killed in Fleming County.

WAS FROM BRACKEN COUNTY.

Joseph Perkins, a farmer living near Plummer's Landing, and who recently removed from Bracken county.

Was crushed to death in a singular manner.

He was driving down hill with a wagon load of wood, when the wagon overturned, the entire load falling on him, crushing him in a horrible manner.

He was 40 years old.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Miss Sude C. Hill Expires Monday Morning.

WAS SICK ONLY A FEW HOURS.

"In the midst of life we are in death." This truth was never more forcibly illustrated than in the sudden summons of Miss Sude C. Hill.

Although she had been grief-stricken since the death of her mother some months ago, it was noticed by her friends that her spirits were more buoyant of late and no one was prepared for the shock that came at 4:15 o'clock Monday morning.

Indeed, she was out in the streets Sunday afternoon, and was out walking as late as 7 o'clock in the evening.

At 11 p. m. she was seized with vomiting, and despite the ministrations of physicians and family her condition grew rapidly worse until the end came at the hour named.

Sude Curtis Hill was the youngest daughter of the late Charles B. and E. A. Hill, and was aged 39 years.

She was a most estimable lady, endeared to everyone who knew her. Since the death of her mother she had made her home with her brother-in-law, Hon. R. B. Lovel, from whose residence the funeral will take place at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, with services by the Rev. J. S. Sims of the M. E. Church, South.

Interment at Mayesville Cemetery.

J. W. Fitzgerald, assignee of N. S. Wood, makes that no personality of assignor has come to his hands, and he has received only the undivided half interest in two lots in the Sixth Ward.

The remains of the late Thomas J. Rogers arrived from Wichita, Kas., at 10:16 Sunday night, and were conveyed to the residence of his brother, Mr. George W. Rogers, 122 East Third street.

Funeral services were held at Wichita under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, but there will be services at the residence at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. W. O. Cochrane. Interment will be at Mayesville Cemetery.

FELL 26 FEET.

An Aberdeen Painter Does That in Louisville.

HIS INJURIES QUITE SERIOUS.

S. R. McDowell, a painter whose home is at Aberdeen, while engaged in painting the interior of a building at Churchill and Eighth streets in Louisville Saturday, made a mistake while shifting his scaffold, and fell twenty-six feet into a pile of slabs and was badly hurt.

His injuries are in the back and head. Blood oozed from his mouth and nostrils.

He was conveyed to Saints Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, where he is being well cared for.

DEADLY MATCH.

A Young Lady's Narrow Escape at Vanceburg.

DANGER LURKS EVERYWHERE.

Miss Nellie Plummer, one of Vanceburg's most accomplished young ladies, in company with two other ladies, was walking in front of the St. Charles Hotel a few evenings since.

Miss Plummer stepped on one of these new-fangled and deadly "parlor matches," when it ignited and set fire to her dress.

Mr. Ed. Armstrong, Proprietor of the hotel, at once seized the girl and smothered the flames, thereby saving her life.

As it was Miss Plummer was only slightly burned, but it was a narrow escape.

Did you get an invitation to the wedding?

You will send a present, of course, whether you go or not, and we can settle the perplexing question of what to give and save you the time and worry of looking around because of the great variety of articles suitable for such occasions we always carry in stock.

Call and be satisfied of truth of our statement and see the numerous beautiful things you can afford to give.

BRADLEY

HOW OUTSIDERS VIEW HIS RECENT VICTORY.

Correspondence Cincinnati Post.

William O'Connell Bradley, the first Republican Governor of the "Grand Old Commonwealth of Kentucky," has again demonstrated to a mathematical precision that he still has the party politics of this state nailed down and clinched. And all this in the face of powerful opposition within his own ranks, which perpetually raises its helmeted head only to be routed.

This time, in the desperate contest for delegates to the State and National Convention, he had to encounter the antagonism of the two leading Republican organizations of the state, with such leaders as Todd, the Mayor of Louisville, Denay, Roberts, Congressman Pugh and Hunter—the latter thirsting for revenge—disappointed office-seekers and so on; but he downed them all and hobbled up severely, the same Bill Bradley as before.

NO OTHER COULD DO IT.

No other living Republican in the state could have carried a majority of the Convention against the high advancing tide of McKinley's popularity.

For 25 years, which dates back to his young manhood, in all races, within his party and in the last great state Derby

During the winter of 1893, F. M. Martin of Long Reach, West Va., contracted a severe cold which left him with a cough. In speaking of how he cured it he says: "I used several kinds of cough syrup but found to relief until I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved me almost instantly, and in a short time brought about a complete cure." When troubled with a cough or cold use this remedy and you will not find it necessary to try several kinds before you get relief. It has been in the market for over twenty years and constantly grown in favor and popularity. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by J. Jas. Wood, Druggist.

be was like the famous Eclipse—"First, the balance nowhere."

Aside from his acknowledged ability as an orator and lawyer, his success as a leader is largely due to personal fellowship with thousands, man to man, like unto the following of "Jo" Blackburn, whom, however, he overizes in intellectual acquirements and native astuteness.

NEVER FORGETS HIS FRIENDS.

He grasps his friends to himself with hooks of steel. His opponents he handles with a pitch fork. Nobody ever has to be introduced to him a second time, and he knows and calls thousands of men by their Christian names, and readily addresses them in a cordial how-are-you-Tom-Jim-Bob way that is very fetching.

This is natural with him and has been his life-long custom, whether before the public or in every-day life.

He is never hedged about with an assumed dignity or haughtiness, and is at all times accessible to anybody.

HIS VERSATILITY.

He can adapt himself to the most heterogeneous audience. His oratory is often as ornate and classical as an icicle, when he will suddenly turn, with a peculiar twinkle in his eye, into shouts of fun from his inexhaustible fund of anecdotes, all pretty and to the point.

He dresses plainly, and his soft, white alpaca hat is as familiar throughout Kentucky as his submersible.

HE IS ABSTEMIOUS.

Being Governor has not changed his habits a bit. When out on his political campaigns he always has a box of cigars and a bottle of "Kentucky vintage" on his table free to all. He is abstemious himself, but knows the rank and file of the "boys" like to "wet their whistles" just to get in tune. His mountain clients and admirers frequently send him consignments of "old apple jack," which he dispenses freely and dubs the "nectar from high Olympus."

BRADLEY.

Kentucky's Own Son for President.

BRADLEY'S CURRENCY PLATFORM.

"I am opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing it would destroy all National property. The gold dollar is the best dollar, and I am in favor of making every other dollar equivalent to it in value. I am the friend of silver, and believe it can be best protected by holding it in such bonds as will insure its parity with gold as a circulating medium."—W. O. BRADLEY.

The Republicans of Kentucky are thoroughly alive and will unite to a man on the St. Louis nominee. As a matter of course, our friends the enemy are trying to make it appear that the party is split all to smithereens. But sensible people have long since learned to believe just the opposite of Democratic declarations.

Mr. J. D. LIVINGSTONE, Vice-President and General Manager of the Lexington and Eastern Railway, who has just returned from an extended trip to New York City, says that Governor BRADLEY is more highly regarded in the East than the people in Kentucky imagine. The Eastern men think McKinley represents that faction of the Republican party which leans toward free silver, but they believe Governor BRADLEY to be an out-and-out gold standard man, and Mr. LIVINGSTONE says he believes BRADLEY would be the hardest kind of a man to defeat were he to receive the Presidential nomination at St. Louis.

AND now two important changes in the By-laws of the Kentucky Republican organization have been made by the new State Central Committee.

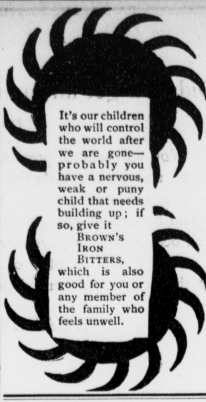

Attorney General W. S. TAYLOR, who is a member of the committee, made some remarks about the ruling of Chairman YERKES, in which he criticised his action in the State Convention in ruling that in counties where there was a contest neither side could vote.

He introduced an amendment to the By-laws that hereafter the sitting delegate should be allowed to vote on all questions except where the legality of their own credentials were involved.

The amendment was adopted unanimously.

Committee K. J. HAMPTON of the Tenth District introduced a resolution that hereafter in all State Conventions no county shall be allowed to vote which has not a resident Delegate of the county present to cast the vote.

This was to prevent a repetition of the case of Pike county, whose vote was cast by Hon. JOHN W. YERKES of Boyle county.

The State Board of Equalization raised Lewis county's assessment 5 per cent. on farm lands and personalty.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
